1. Jet WJ-201

Testing although determined by the relevant product Standard, is generally recognised for up to 5 years by the certifying body, providing the testing procedures remain the same and the background information on the product is adequately documented. Also, the results stated in the report relate to the samples of the product submitted for testing. Any changes in the material formulation and supplier/manufacturer of all ingredients, the process of manufacture, the method of application, or the surface area-to-volume ratio in the end-use, could affect the suitability of the product for use in contact with drinking water, and re-testing may be required before this actual time frame, governed by the completion and evaluation date.
